8 Reasons Why You Should Be A Praiser

Reference Scriptures:

Heb 13:15; Rev 1:1-8; 1 Pet 2:8-9; 1 Chron 25:1; 5-6; 23:30

- Israel came out of 430 years of bondage.
- Israel left out of Egypt with a slave mentality.
- People who don't have a good relationship with God will murmur and complain when things don't go their way.
- When you live under the hand you are always oppressed.
- Most people witness the hand of God but don't see the heart of God.
- When you are a oppressed you only see the bad things.
- When you find yourself uplifting, encouraging, commending; you find that the atmosphere will change.
- When you speak negative it shuts down and closes every door you want God to open.
- You are letting your murmuring and complaining drive you away from your blessing.

The Anointing works:

- In you
- On you
- For you

- When you are in a place where the anointing is and your heart is right; the anointing will flow when you lay hands on your family and children.

8 Reason why you should be a Praiser:

1. I have a desire for His presence.
 2. He has commanded for us to praise Him
 3. Because I should be grateful of the things that God has done.
 4. You love enough to give Him glory.
 5. Because I need Him.
 6. Because praising Him brings miracles, healing, strength and encouragement.
 7. Because praise brings favor.
 8. It brings divine revelation and instruction.
- When you move into an area of needing to know – God can direct you to the right places and the right people.

“Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth.”
2 Tim 2:15
