Leadership Spotlight

Mother Arlene Dennis has been married to Elder C. Dennis for 19 years. They have 2 children and 5 grandchildren. She has been a faithful member of NCM for approximately 6 years. She serves as an Intercessory Prayer Warrior, on the Benevolence and Home and Foreign Missions Committee, on the Mothers Board and Bible Band. When asked what changes have you seen in yourself since being member of NCM? She replied, "becoming more open to the ministry". One of her favorite scriptures is Proverbs 3: 5-6

Mother Carolyn Owens has been a faithful member of NCM for about 5 years. She serves as the Pastor Aide President and the Junior Usher Board President. She has been blessed with 4 wonderful children 2 boys and 2 girls. She retired from Stanadyne Automotive in 2007. Mother Owens is a native of Jacksonville, NC. When asked what changes have you seen in yourself since attending NCM? With a slight hesitation she answered "I have seen spiritual growth within myself. I came to NCM in a cocoon, and I have seen God turn me into a butterfly. I have seen myself break out of my shyness; I am yet learning to do the work of God." One of her favorite scripture is Phil 4:13 I can do all things through Christ which strengthens me.

From the desk of the Pastor:

When God plans a course for you, there is nothing that can stand in your way.

5 Points to your victory:

1. Hear a word
2. Follow instructions
3. Know how to line up with the will and word of God
4. Be quiet and listen
5. When the time comes; open up your mouth!

Walk in victory!
